

OWNER OF "MOST BEAUTIFUL BACK IN THE MOVIES" GIVES SOME EXPERT ADVICE

EDNA MAISON.

"You can read character in backs as well as in faces, hands, mouths, chins, plis or eyes," said pretty Edna Maison, the Universal star who is said to have the most beautiful back in the movies.

"The girl with a plump back shows an easy going disposition and a disinclination to ever worry herself about anything. That kind of a girl usually makes a fine mother.

"A dimple in the shoulder denotes coquettishness, and a square shoulder denotes energy and capability, while a sloping shoulder means femininity and sympathy.

"Carriage should also be taken into consideration when one is judging character by the back. A girl whose back rounds and shoulders slouch is apt to be very lazy.

"Few women pay enough attention to their backs and forget to use a handglass before their toilette is completed. A belt that gaps from the skirt, a bit of scraggly hair, a collar unfastened; these tell more than a girl would sometimes like her sweetheart to know."